Asset Class Performance

*Sources: FactSet, Morningstar. As of July 31, 2022. *Hedge fund returns are as of June 30, 2022.

Fixed Income (July)

+ Falling long-term rates were a reprieve for fixed income investors, marking only the second positive month for the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index this year.

+ U.S. high yield experienced the best monthly return in the last 10 years, driven in part by a strong technical backdrop and risk-on sentiment.

- The U.S. dollar strengthened, reaching parity with the Euro, a headwind for non-USD assets which trailed domestic markets.

Equity (July)

+ U.S. equities rebounded sharply in July, fueled in part by better-than-expected earnings reports and a shift in market sentiment that the Fed's actions may be taking hold to combat inflation as we move into the next year.

+ Developed international markets gained ground but lagged their domestic counterparts.

- Emerging markets fell modestly in the month, driven by weak results in China as the country's manufacturing sector contracted during the month.

Real Asset / Alternatives (July)

+ REITs moved higher, in line with the broader equity market. Lower interest rates and a strong summer travel season buoyed the sector.

+ Real assets gained ground during July. Inflation remains stubbornly high, and the underlying equity market rally contributed.

+ Commodity markets generally saw price declines in the month yet eked out a modest gain due to a large jump in natural gas prices.

Fixed Income Market Update

U.S. Treasury Yield Curve

The U.S. yield curve became more inverted during the month, fueled by growing concerns of a recession putting downward pressure on long-term rates while tightening by the Fed pushed short-term rates higher.

Index Performance Attribution (July 2022)

Spread sectors rebounded in July. Higher yields (better valuations) attracted investors and low issuance in the high yield sector provided a technical tailwind.

Credit Market Spreads – Trailing 5 Years

Corporate bond spreads remain elevated compared to the start of the year but tightened in July, moving off recent year-to-date peaks. Despite the recent negative GDP estimate for the second quarter, better-than-expected earnings reports and a strong technical backdrop pushed spreads tighter.

Equity Market Update

Market Capitalization & Style Performance (July 2022)

Equity markets bounced in July. Growth stocks outpaced value, a reversal from earlier in the year. Favorable earnings reports, especially among Tech companies, have provided a tailwind and falling long-term rates more favorably impacted the higher valuation companies.

U.S. Equities – Returns by Sector (July 2022)

All sectors in the S&P 500 were positive in July. Energy was the notable standout for the month as Exxon Mobile, Chevron, Phillips 66 and Valero beat earnings expectations for the second quarter. Information technology was also a large contributor given its significant weight in the S&P 500.

Real Asset Market Update

Real Assets Performance

Natural gas was the star of the show in the energy market, as prices soared amid uncertainty of Russian gas supply to Western Europe, while oil prices continue to fall of peaks from earlier in the year. Other commodity markets were weaker amid prospects of a slowing global economy.

Source: FactSet. As of July 31, 2022

REIT Sector Performance

REITs moved higher in the month as rates came down, alongside the broader equity market. Returns were widely positive, with all underlying sectors seeing a move higher. Retail, industrial, and lodging/resorts were all among the top performers as consumers continue to satisfy pent up demand for travel and services.
